St. Paul's Advent Bingo

- Pray at a daily Morning or Evening Prayer gathering

Check out the St. Paul's Weekly Calendar for links to join us!

- Sing along at Beer, Pop, Juice and Carols

The best way to spread Christmas cheer is singing loud for all to hear!" Don your ugliest Christmas sweater, pour a glass of beer, pop, or juice and join us on Zoom at 7 PM on Friday, December 4th. We will sing carols, enjoy our favorite beverages, and compete in fun contests guaranteed to put you in the holiday spirit. Song lyric sheets will be provided for all and sheet music can be provided upon request. If you have any questions, please contact Christin Cooper at ccooper@stpaulspgh.org. Look for the link to join in coming emails.

- Sit in silence for 15 minutes

- Advent Lessons and Music

Sunday, December 13, 10:45AM - Advent Lessons and Music Collaborative Worship Service

- Attend the Christmas Pageant

Sunday, December 20th, at 4pm on ZOOM!

Imagine a narrator on screen, reading about the shepherds. Suddenly, WOW, there are all the shepherds and sheep, all in their own little Zoom windows with Virtual Backgrounds. Then imagine the Angel Gabriel, arriving to deliver the good news of Jesus' arrival. And suddenly, WOW! Not only are there shepherds and sheep, but there are the angels from heaven, with their stars in hand. Questions? Please email Kristen Morgan at kmorgan@stpaulspgh.org

- Read Luke 2:1- 20

Send a picture of you lighting your Advent Wreath to Laura

Pictures will be shared on the church's Facebook and website! Please email Laura at Laura@stpaulspgh.org

- Take a tag from the Angel Tree

Just like everything else, our Angel Tree this year will look a little different than in years past. We will be putting it out in the parking lot from 12-2pm on Sunday, Nov. 22, along with other Advent materials, but after that, starting next Monday, it will be all online. We will be supporting many local ministries this year who are facing unprecedented challenges due to COVID-19, including SHIM, Casa San Jose, Jeremiah's Place, Trinity Walk-in Ministry, and a local organization caring for children currently experiencing homelessness. Gifts can either be purchased online and sent to St. Paul's, or wrapped and brought to the church during designated drop-off times. So come grab a tag next Sunday, or sign up online after that! Contact Andrea at akamouyerou@stpaulspgh.org with any questions.

- Listen to a podcast on the St. Paul's Podcast Advent Calendar

- Pass the Peace in the comments at a 10:45am Facebook service

- South Hills Food Pantry Christmas Bags

The South Hills Food Pantry is again conducting a special Christmas delivery for all of its clients. All deliveries will take place on December 13. As a supporter of the Food Pantry, St. Paul's has committed to helping fill as many Christmas bags as we can! Bags, with labels listing the requested items, are located on the screened-in porch of the Southminster House, next to the Mt. Lebanon library. Or you can print your own list by going here.

The Food Pantry prefers that the filled bags be deposited in the Food Pantry box on the screened in porch of Southminster House (instead of here at St. Paul's) by December 7. Please contact Andrea at akamouyerou@stpaulspgh.org with any questions!

- Give away something you own and don't use or need

- Contribute to the Christmas Day Meal

In years past, we have supported a Christmas Day dinner in Carnegie served at the Church of the Atonement. This year, the Church of the Atonement is not able to serve the meal, so St. Paul's and St. John's will be partnering up to fill the gap. John Sozansky will be the lead cook in the kitchen, and we will need volunteers to help cook, package, and deliver meals on Christmas Day. This Christmas will be unique in many ways - if you would be interested in volunteering to help provide a Christmas meal to someone in need on Christmas Day, please contact Andrea at akamouyerou@stpaulspgh.org.

- Read a chapter of a book of the Bible you've never read/haven't spent much time with

- Advent Yoga

Advent Yoga Begins Sunday, November 29 at 5 p.m. Advent is a season of watching, and waiting and yoga offers us the opportunity to be introspective and consider how we move through periods of uncertainty and anticipation. These yoga classes will offer gentle movement and space to reflect and be still in a season that is often characterized by busyness. These classes will offer modifications for all levels. Whether you have a lot of experience with yoga or are curious to try it for the first time, you are welcome to roll out a mat (or a towel!) at home and join us. Classes will meet Nov. 29, Dec 6, 13 & 20 at 5 p.m. Watch for the link in the weekly email!

- Songs of the Season

Sunday 12/13 at 4 PM via Zoom! St. Paul's Church & Nursery School invite you and your family Songs of the Season a Family Singalong Event for ALL!

Lyrics & supplies will be distributed 12/10 - contact Eileen Sharbaugh (esharbaugh@stpaulspgh.org) or Andrea Kamouyerou (akamouyerou@stpaulspgh.org)
